interests extending out over the state as is the case here, will be something that the city needs and can and will be proud of. I believe that would be equally true whether or not whether it happened to be a democrat or a republican. Tulsa has felt the need of being represented at the national capital for many years, a need that is no wise conflicted with the needs of any other city or county in the district. I believe it would be a good advertisement and a good investment for Tulsa to have a congressman. My brother happens to be a candidate for the citizenship of Tulsa, and I believe the citizenship of Tulsa, regardless of political or party difference, will be benefited by his election and will have no occasion to regret having conferred that honor upon him.

During the years he has been in the service of the state his real residence has been in Tulsa as every one knows. He could not very well keep a house here for the technical purpose of maintaining a residence on the meager income from a state office, but his real home has remained here. Some effort has also been made to create the impression that I am also an alien in this community. Now the facts are these: Some two or three years ago I was compelled on the grounds of health alone to seek a different climate, and as a matter of fact I am still under the direction of a physician. After a few months I felt that I could not afford to keep up an establishment here requiring two or three servants to take care of it and I therefore sold my home on South Boulder street, but I have never severed in any sense my intimate relations with the affairs of this community and have never paid a dollar's worth of taxes anywhere except in Oklahoma. My interests are all here and I spend as much time here as my health will permit. The fact that I can not remain here constantly is more of a calamity than a matter of choice with me. I have always taken an active interest in all public affairs here and I think I may say without boasting that I have contributed my share towards the promotion and development of Tulsa and this section of Oklahoma in every possible manner that could be expected. It has been a pleasure to me to contribute to every public enterprise requiring financial aid and I do not recall ever failing to respond when called upon by my neighbors to help boost Tulsa, so I hardly believe the attempt to make an ex-patriate out of me for political purposes is justified. I know it will not be by those who know me and the new owners can easily ascertain what the men who have helped to make Tulsa think about my desires in this respect.

So far as this registration charge is concerned this is the second taken from page 259 book 1, official registration for Tulsa county, O. R. Howard registered on the 4th day of the 5th month, 1918, and his occupation as publisher, residence 1409 South Boulder, city 122. O. R. Howard registered on the 9th day of the 5th month, 1918, age 42, residence 1409 South Boulder, occupation state auditor, card 258. If there has ever been any other registration issued for either myself or my brother I have no knowledge of it and as before stated, I have never changed my legal residence from Tulsa. Now if I am not entitled to a vote legally and otherwise I have no desire to cast one, but I know of several of the latest property owners in this city who are exactly in the same situation so far as technical residence is concerned.

These are a few of the points I desire to present and answer if I may without any political taint or bias, could whatever and whether "O. R." is elected to congress or not I shall still claim Tulsa as my home, the best city in the world, my home. I believe I am entitled to have this published in the columns of The World just as a matter of justice and fairness to myself and I shall feel that The World is an unfair and partisan newspaper if it declines to publish it and I have always regarded The World as a high type of a newspaper, typical of the spirit and growth of this city. I therefore submit it to you and await the results.

Most sincerely,
OSCAR HOWARD.

AUSTRIAN FLAGSHIP IS SUNK BY ITALIAN FORCE

ROME, Nov. 2.—Italian naval forces succeeded in entering the harbor of Pola, the Austrian naval base, on Friday morning and sank the Austrian battleship Viribus Unitis, the flagship of the Austro-Hungarian fleet, it is officially announced.

The destruction of the Viribus Unitis marks the wiping out of three of the four ships of that class, the most powerful in the Austrian navy at the beginning of the war.

In a daring raid off the Dalmatian coast last June '19, an Italian light squadron blew up two Austrian dreadnaughts of the Viribus Unitis type. Vienna officially admitted the loss of the Szent Istvan, but admitted no other losses. However, an unnamed ship of the same class was sunk in the harbor of Pola a month earlier.

The Viribus Unitis was a vessel of 26,000 tons and carried twelve 12-inch and twelve 5-inch guns. Her complement was 1,000 men.

Don't Grumble

Shortage of labor; shortage of merchandise; transportation difficulties and governmental restrictions on business—have hit all of us alike—but we can't afford to howl either at conditions or each other.

In our PHONOGRAPH Department our large stock of COLUMBIA and BRUNSWICK Phonographs are rapidly becoming depleted, and if you expect to purchase one within the next 60 days, better come in and make your selection and have it set away for you until you want it delivered.

The Columbia and Brunswick Phonographs have the wooden tone chamber which enables them to produce the natural flexible, resonant, human and natural quality of TONE. That kind of tone is entirely foreign to Talking Machines with iron or metal tone chambers.

The BRUNSWICK plays ANY record made. Call and hear these truly wonderful Phonographs.

CONSIDER WHAT'S AT STAKE

We are still selling IVERS & POND and Hallett & Davis pianos and player pianos to discriminating buyers, notwithstanding the absurd claims made by some of our over-zealous competitors.

The prices on these pianos have been raised ONLY what the WHOLESALE raise has been to us. Other dealers have doubled and tripled the price raise to them. WHICH would you rather deal with? SQUARE business dealing has enabled us to stay in business and prosper for fourteen years.

MANY others have gone and gone during that period, but we are still here doing business the same old way, giving everyone a square deal.

CAN YOU BEAT IT? Come in and investigate; compare. Our ONE PRICE plan makes buying safe and easy.

Do You Pay Your Bills?

You're to Blame

WHEN you ask for credit at a store and are informed that you can't have it—DON'T BLAME THE MERCHANT.

There is no one to blame but yourself. YOU MAKE YOUR OWN CREDIT, and whether it is good or bad, it stands as a monument to your efforts.

Remember, your credit is based upon HOW YOU PAY YOUR BILLS. If you pay them promptly, you deserve credit and you get it. If you don't pay them, you don't deserve credit, and YOU DON'T GET IT—but whether you get credit or not DEPENDS ABSOLUTELY UPON YOU AND YOU ALONE.

If your credit is not good—YOU ARE A DEAD BEAT. When you don't pay your bills you are in the same class as a thief. You lied to get merchandise, and by lying you succeeded in getting merchandise under false pretenses and your proper place is in stripes and behind the bars.

YOU ARE AN ENEMY TO SOCIETY. You are dangerous and a discredit to the community in which you live.

But your status is of your own making. There is a rotten place in your character somewhere, you must be watched and CAN'T BE TRUSTED.

But don't blame the merchant—it's not his fault.

Dead Beats Halted

DON'T DECEIVE YOURSELF.

Don't think you can neglect paying one merchant and get what you need ON CREDIT from another.

Don't think you can exhaust your credit with one set of merchants and then start in on another. THIS IS AN ERA OF "PAY AS YOU GO."

The Retail Merchants' Association is working daily and succeeding daily in eliminating the "DEAD BEAT." When you have gone your limit, YOU STOP.

You must pay Jones before you can buy from Smith. Today Smith knows how much you owe Jones as well as you do. Smith and Jones are no longer "dupes." They cut their eye-teeth some time ago. They have lost all the money on professional dead beats, like you, they intend losing.

Today they compare books. Every merchant in the city, through the Retail Merchants' Association, can find out how much you owe every other merchant. And every merchant in the city can also learn how you PAY YOUR BILLS.

In unity there is strength—and the merchants have united to KILL THE DEAD BEAT.

Being the Nineteenth and Continuation of a Series of Talks on Bills and the Prompt Payment of Them.

Pay Now

FRIDAY was the first of the month. On that day, all the bills you have incurred since the first of last month became due—unless arrangements have been made to the contrary.

You who made purchases last month and had them charged on open account are now expected TO PAY.

Remember, the merchant MUST PAY HIS BILLS, and he can't unless you pay yours. Expecting him to carry you two or three or four months is imposing upon his confidence in you.

He extended you credit as a convenience and you should not inconvenience him now by not paying promptly. And you do when you don't pay.

He believed you honest, fair and worthy of his confidence. Are you going to let him show that he was mistaken and that you are DISHONEST, UNFAIR AND UNWORTHY? And then will you have nerve enough to go back later and ask for more credit?

It's how you PAY YOUR BILLS TODAY that determines your rating for tomorrow. It's how you paid your bills yesterday THAT GIVES YOU YOUR RATING TODAY.

To save yourself, your honor and your integrity, you should PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY.

And they are due now.
